

Guidelines for oral presentations

Speaking time

The time slot for each presentation is 12 minutes, plus 3 minutes for Q&A; please adjust the length of your speech and the number of the slides to stay within the allowed time.

Beware! Session chairs will strictly enforce the respect of the schedule.

Language

The presentation must be prepared in English.

Power point presentation

- Presentation format
No specific layout is suggested. Nevertheless, please note that your power point presentation must be compatible with different office versions. For more safety, please have a .pdf version of your presentation as well (1 slide per page), to have another version to show if needed.
- Presentation set-up
Presentation must be loaded on the computer of the room congress well before the beginning of the session. Bring your presentation on a USB memory stick. Staff will be present in the room at all time during the congress to help you load and check your presentation. Please note that it is not allowed to use your own laptop computer.

Oral presentations

Please make sure to be in your room well before your session starts and introduce yourself to the session chairperson before the beginning of the session. Please follow carefully the instructions received from the session chairman, in particular regarding the speaking time allocated to you for your presentation.

Best oral competition

There will be two Taylor & Francis Book Awards for the best oral presentations at the Congress, in the amount of $200.
